

Vocational and Skill Education

The Education Programme, NIAS has been active in exploring the ways in which Vocational Education becomes an important domain to understand the linkages between Education, Vocational Skill Interventions, Employment and Sustainable Livelihoods. Our project activities in the area of Vocational Skill and Higher Education reached out to about 700 people through various industries, training institutes, NGOs, and other key stakeholders.

